Rental Agreement

1. Inspection. Customer will not leave with the Inventory until a full "Inspection of Inventory" form is completed and initialed by Customer and a company representative. Upon execution of said form Customer acknowledges that the equipment is in good condition and working order.

2. Uses and Care of Inventory. Customer agrees to use and maintain the equipment at their own expense, according to the Manufacturer's Instructions, and per our instructions, if any. Customer may not make any modifications to the equipment without prior written consent. Customer agrees that they will not misuse or abuse the equipment or use it in any unlawful way.

3. Damaged or Lost Equipment: Customer is solely responsible and liable for any and all loss, including theft, and/or damage to the equipment during the period covered by the Rental Agreement. In the event of any loss or damage to the equipment, Customer agrees to pay the rental rate during the period of time until the equipment is repaired and/or replaced. YourCompany Inc. reserves up to 48 hours from when the item is returned to alert the Customer of any issues. In the event of any equipment damage, YourCompany Inc. must handle all and any repairs.
